I am enjoying watching the multiple Catholic viewpoints and just wanted to put in that you have an Eastern Orthodox viewer.

To that end I find the point of Resurrected souls/bodies discussion an outstanding one. In Orthodoxy both Horn and Silk (and Pas and Pig for that matter) would "...see my creator ... with my own eyes..." for the Universal Resurrection. Each would presumably carry the residue of the merger into his transfigured life.

As far as Alga saying:

... but Christianity is my favorite hobby and I'll bet I can out-reference the whole damn barroom. (I think Borges was a hobbyist too, fwiw.)

I wouldn't take that bet. The references have been pretty damn good so far.
