I wrote, quoting OWB:

"Not mine," I told him.

"Not now, and not ever."

Seawrack herself said "But he belongs to me." She joined me at the fiit if the mast and linked her arm in mine. "The Mother gave him to me. What of it?"

(OWB, hb, pp. 175)

Eek! That's what I get for typing with my eyes closed!

Take out:

the fiit if the mast and linked her arm in mine.

Substitute:

the foot if the mast and linked her arm in mine.

There were some other typos too, but that was the worst. Besides, I felt the need to rub Borski's nose in that passage again, since he hasn't yet addressed it :-)
