Does Rose have a daughter? We know that she has a son, but what about 1:69hc?

"At times Maytera Rose, kneeling before her daughter's image,..."

This is a wonderful find. We come to realize later that Rose identifies herself with Echidna, and possibly has been possessed by Echidna. I suspect we are seeing Rose-as-Echidna kneeling before an image of Scylla, Echidna's daughter. Rose doesn't seem to have a secure hold on her identity or her life. Does anyone else agree that she's in effect an animated corpse, kept alive only by her prosthetics?

And what's up with that scene with Urus and the Trivigaunti officer, where they rendezvous for a clandestine meeting? And how would Horn > have known of it to write about it, and why?

We have suspected for a long time that Urus is a spy rather than simply another escaped prisoner in the tunnels. The Triv he meets is Major Hadale, General Saba's Intelligence staff officer. Urus is signing up to spy for the Trivs. The outcome we see soon after is the assassination attempt in the Grand Manteion.
