Exported from an unofficial mirror of a public mailing list. Copyright in each message remains with the person who wrote it. Email addresses are obscured as `user at host`, the form the original archive published. This file was rebuilt from parsed fields rather than retained headers, so it is faithful in content but not byte-exact.

Though I am a fellow Wolfe fan, my mailing lists are beginning to make things unmanagable. I need to cut down on a few.

On many lists instructions are tagged to the end of other participants email or there is a regular listowner message on such matters. I may be overlooking them (like I do for so many things when reading Wolfeania), so my apologies if that is the case.
