Does anyone else remember when Silk, dreamed or traveled "The Corriders" to when he was a boy? I can't seem to find it ,however, I do remember him saying that he only had enough time to write one line or phrase on paper to leave the boy (himself) proof that he was there. The verse was something akin to "Don't fear love". I am interested in finding this again, so speak up if you have any idea.

P.S. The Outsider also has hands that are large, hard, and warm and also "clean and gentle and full of healing." Another point is of if Typhon has the audacity of including his God as a lesser one, where as Severian/Conciliator would be an Outsider since he wasn't included in the Mainframe with the other gods, but was rather excluded for some strange reason.
