I must say that I'm gratified that Gene Wolfe recommends John Crowley. I just interrupted my reread of the New Sun books as I got my hands on Crowley's latest (and there aren't many books which can do that). I'd recommend the following by Crowley:

Engine Summer

Little, Big

Aegypt

Love & Sleep

There are other inhum on "Whorl." Something about which planet they came from, Blue or Green, but I don't remember..

Great! Maybe the term "inhum" is more like "cacogen", i.e. generic term for non-humans of extrasolar origin, or maybe just non-human which leaves it a bit open-ended.
