OK, so it's a Whorl Train, but I have that song in my head. And I'll thank you to stop badmouthing Philadelphia, my adopted hometown, at least until I can get the hell out of here.

Anyway, I would like to adopt Vizcacha's first question, which is pretty much the same as my original one which got lost in the rush to board the first train:

"Mint states that she had to give up many things, 'five of them very great,' to become a sibyl. Can you tell us what those five things were?"

Ranjit! Sorry I missed your question in my lame round up of late entries--thanks for bringing it up again! Okay, you are in seat number 20.
