Exported from an unofficial mirror of a public mailing list. Copyright in each message remains with the person who wrote it. Email addresses are obscured as `user at host`, the form the original archive published. This file was rebuilt from parsed fields rather than retained headers, so it is faithful in content but not byte-exact.

Some announcements related to the WHORL mailing list and web pages:

* The ARCHIVES are now available on the web page. There's not much now, but (if I got my programs working properly) every posting to the mailing list will appear on the web page as well.

* I'm also keeping a NAMES LIST, a handy reference to discussions of Whorlish names. Anything relevant that appears on the mailing list will get summarized there when I have time.

<http://moonmilk.volcano.org/whorl/names.html>

* There's a lot more that could be done with the web page.

Suggestions and contributions are welcome. For instance, I'd like to have a list of questions and conundrums, with links to mailing list discussions relevant to those questions. Like, how big is the whorl? Where did Quetzal come from? And so on. Also, if you have found or created any artifacts, images, web pages, links, etc., let me know and I'll put 'em on the Whorl Web.

Reminder: to write to the mailing list, write whorl at lists.best.com
