This is Sean Whalen (prion).

Oosik. Also ooshook. Inuit (Eskimo) for the baculum (penis bone) of a walrus, or of other sea mammals, or just for penis. Baculum or baculus in Latin means staff, walking stick, or augur's staff. Generalissimo of Viron. Father of Mattak (Whale Meat). Name may have to do with his relationship with Hyacinth. Also, since baculum means an augur's staff, this probably has to do with the fact that he supports Silk, or that he is a member of his staff.

Oreb. Hebrew for raven. A chough is any species of genus Pyrrhocorax (red raven). Related to crows. Have black feathers and red legs. Night chough Silk buys to sacrifice, but doesn't. Also the name of a raven referred to in the Chiasmologic Writings
