From Lawrence:

Hi there! Just a quick note to let you know that there will be an interview with Gene Wolfe in the forthcoming issue of Nova Express. In it he talks about The Fifth Head of Cerberus, the Urth Cycle, The Book of the Long Sun, the forthcoming Book of the Short Sun, and helping design the machine that makes Pringles potato chips, among other topics of interest to the readers of this list. (Gene's comment on the interview proof: "It seems to me like a very good piece.")

Also, should anyone care to submit any reviews or articles about

Wolfe's work, I'd happily take a look at them for this issue. (We're also interested other pieces on the best work done in the modern SF/F/H genre.) I'd especially like a meaty, insightful review of The Book of the Long Sun, since I have heretofore been too lazy to undertake such a daunting task myself. Unfortunately, the deadline for having work in for this issue is October 10. I would have sent this notice to this list earlier, but I just didn't think about it until now. (Doh!) Submission guidelines can be found at the Nova Express website (URL below), but basically 5,000 words or less for articles, e-mail submissions OK, we use a one-time copyright with all rights reverting to the author after publication, and payment is in contributor copies + a four issue subscription.

Thanks!

(Posted (probably redundantly) to both Urth and Whorl lists.)
