Exported from an unofficial mirror of a public mailing list. Copyright in each message remains with the person who wrote it. Email addresses are obscured as `user at host`, the form the original archive published. This file was rebuilt from parsed fields rather than retained headers, so it is faithful in content but not byte-exact.

Well thanks to Mantis and Craig Christensen I have managed to put together a short list of uncollected story titles - not on the website yet. Thanks to the internet speculative fiction database and Locus we also have locations and reprint locations for these stories. So what I will need from you avid readers, is something that these fantastic resources don't include: page numbers!

I'll let you know when the page is up, so you can have a look. Anyone without web access can contact me, and I may be able to email bits to you in some form or another.
