I think the Occam's Razor explanation for the Whorl is that it was sent out for the greater glory of Pas--i.e. to spread Typhon's rule to new places. I actually think it would be odd for Typhon to sell the Whorl to the inhumani, simply because it's difficult to see what they could offer him. Typhon's certainly a monster, but doesn't seem purely sadistic. The inhumani seem to be on a low enough technological level that Typhon would simply exterminate them if he could. Although how Q. reached the Whorl given this low technology is a good question.

I received my copy of On Blue's Waters yesterday. I've only read two chapters so far. I'll comment later today (with the proper warning).
