An acquaintance of mine, who shall remain nameless, has the following to say about IN GREEN'S JUNGLES:

...I've had the opportunity to read it in a galley-ized typescript, and it's great, and in a strange way less sad than On Blue's Waters or Strange Travelers, though full of awful events; all shaping up to a fantastic finish in the third volume--but also very disarranged chronologically, more so than ever, and full of mysteries and conundrums as you would expect...
