

Who else has read IGJ?

The Whorl list — 5 messages, 5 voices, 09 Jun 2000

<https://urth.darkrealm.vip/thread/whorl/837>

Exported from an unofficial mirror of a public mailing list. Copyright in each message remains with the person who wrote it. Email addresses are obscured as `user at host`, the form the original archive published. This file was rebuilt from parsed fields rather than retained headers, so it is faithful in content but not byte-exact.

Yves Meynard — 09 Jun 2000, 21:24

Anybody else out there got hold of an advance copy of _In Green's Jungles_? After reading it, I've still got a lot more questions than answers. I can't wait for people who are smarter than me to get the book and start discussing it. In the meantime, I promise to keep my mouth shut, difficult as that may be.

Yves Meynard
(yes, I'm gloating)

*This is WHORL, for discussion of Gene Wolfe's Book of the Long Sun.

Nicholas Gevers — 09 Jun 2000, 23:53 · follows Yves Meynard

I'm another of the fortunate (or damnable) few, and I'm also eager to begin the discussion. In the dwindling meantime, let me ask you this, Yves: do you now know why there was no guard at the Citadel gate in Chapter I of THE SHADOW OF THE TORTURER?

--- Yves Meynard <ymeynard at globetrotter.qc.ca> wrote:
Anybody else out there got hold of an advance copy of _In Green's Jungles_?
After reading it, I've still got a lot more questions than answers. I can't wait for people who are smarter than me to get the book and start discussing it. In the meantime, I promise to keep my mouth shut, difficult as that may be.

Yves Meynard
(yes, I'm gloating)

Alice Turner — 11 Jun 2000, 09:33 · follows Nicholas Gevers

I think there are six of us. That really isn't enough. Have others put in advance orders? What is the critical mass when we can start talking?

-alga

*This is WHORL, for discussion of Gene Wolfe's Book of the Long Sun.

William Ansley — 11 Jun 2000, 22:14 · follows Alice Turner

At 8:44 AM +0100 6/11/00, David Langford wrote:
I reviewed it from a Tor proof a couple of months back -- the review is due out in the British SF Association's =Vector= but I'll post it here with lots of (mostly unnecessary, I hope) spoiler space if that's OK with the list members.

I have no desire to see your review (or any) before I read the book, but, as long as you clearly mark it in the subject header I can skip it and save it for later, so post away.

At 9:33 AM -0400 6/11/00, Alice Turner wrote:

I think there are six of us. That really isn't enough. Have others put in advance orders? What is the critical mass when we can start talking?

I put in my order about two weeks ago. As far as I am concerned, as long as a suitable label (such as "IGJ Spoilers") is in the subject header of all the messages that make up this discussion and it is restricted to the Whorl list, then the discussion can begin right now. I will just save the messages until after I have a chance to read the book (I did this with OBW).

Have fun, you lucky skunks (as Gary Larson of Far Side fame would say).

William Ansley

*This is WHORL, for discussion of Gene Wolfe's Book of the Long Sun.

matthew.malthouse — 12 Jun 2000, 14:17 · follows William Ansley

On 10/06/2000 02:24:39 Yves Meynard wrote:

Anybody else out there got hold of an advance copy of _In Green's Jungles_?

Yves Meynard

(yes, I'm gloating)

This list is normally a quiet, reflective and above all intellectual place; but right now you'll have dozens of people feverishly scouring the yellow pages to discover which category covers contract hit-men....

Matthew

*This is WHORL, for discussion of Gene Wolfe's Book of the Long Sun.