It arrived today. Hooray! Finally, I've got my own copy of IGJ. Thank you, Amazon...

Given that, as well as apparently being half a dozen other people, Horn is in some sense Odysseus, am I going to discover why it was/is/will be that nobody recognised him when he finally returned home to Ithaca/Lizard? I imagine that he didn't look himself any more.

I know that GW has said that TBotNS was in some ways influenced by Pilgrim's Progress, but has anyone else noticed a vaguely Bunyanesque flavour to the extremely odd (and not particularly attractive) cover picture for IGJ?

(Reads) "I have paper again..."

Wonderful!
