I'm sure this has probably been covered elsewhere, but I've been away for a while. (Sorry for any odd and nonsensical posts-MS can do some weird numbers on one!) Anyway, i have never been able to shake the feeling of relationship between Sev and the Outsider, since Pas/Typhon is twoheaded and/or otherwise plural, and of course Sev is plural too. And somewhere, Silk describes the Outsider as twoheaded, but unlike Pas, in that one of the faces is female, and the Outsider was once something of a storm god as well, according to the Chrasmlologic Writings. Maybe this is what Wolfe is referring to when Horn turns around and uses a peculiar pronoun. Maybe not as Catholic an interpretation as i ought to use, though. I finally got my copy of IGJ, so please don't post this if too irrelevant, uninformed, etc. so nice to be reading you all again! Still Tottering
